CONSENT AGENDA

High school students presented to the Board in honor of International Education Month. The students attend Summit Technology Academy, and are currently learning several different foreign languages that are offered at the academy, including Spanish, Mandarin, Hindi, and several others. The presentation outlined the usefulness of learning foreign languages in the business world, and how they can be beneficial in college and job opportunities.

Fastbridge and Illuminate:Jakqualyn Boden and Becky Gallagher presented information regarding the purpose behind utilizing Illuminate DnA and FastBridge Assessments at all levels in the district. The presentation pointed out the use of FastBridge as a universal screener allows teachers, students, and parents as idea of each child's strengths and areas for growth on skills in mathematics and ELA. While the benchmark assessments in Illuminate DnA help teachers understand the progress students are making on grade level standards, which guides curricular decisions and lesson planning.

Pleasant Hill Branding: Dr. Steve Meyers presented to the board the final logos, fonts and colors that were created for the district's rebranding.

Holiday Celebration: Dr. Steve Meyers reviewed the schedule and details of the central office's holiday party.

The Board reviewed the schedule for upcoming Board activities.
